Strengthening American Manufacturing

What We're About

WorkForge is on a mission to strengthen American manufacturing and our communities by providing engaging and effective workforce skills development solutions. We focus on new employee knowledge acquisition during onboarding, accelerating time-to-productivity, and flattening the turnover curve towards better employee retention.

WorkForge provides the tools and insights critical to building a scalable and sustainable workforce including configurable digital career pathways, streamlining analog work instructions into digital paths, hybrid-based supervisor development programs, and a high-touch enablement process that leverages people and technology.

By The Numbers

62%

Decreased onboarding and orientation time

Proven solutions that will decrease your employee's time-to-productivity.

250,000+

Learners led to skills mastery with Workforce

A better-trained workforce leads to a stronger supply chain, stronger economy, and safer workplace.

25%

Increase in employee retention

Engaging content increases job satisfaction, leading to increased productivity and reduced turnover.

Career Pathways

By integrating skills instruction, personal development, professional development, and leadership modules into each pathway, we ensure a developed and well-rounded employee who can advance from entry-level to leader in approximately two years.

Visual Work Instruction

Using your organization's people, processes, and equipment, we create modules for your specific job, task, or machine. This solution ensures the retention of institutional and tribal knowledge of your exact operation.

Supervisory & Leadership

Effectively develop your current employees into your leaders of tomorrow. With a fully configurable approach of online modules, in-person sessions, and follow-up coaching, our leadership development solution gives new supervisors the tools they need to manage effectively.

Technology & Enablement

Our mobile friendly and customizable online learning platform houses, launches, and tracks all training and development modules, as well as all employee training records on the cloud for easy access at anytime. (SOC2 & FEDRAMP Compliant)
